

House Resolution No. 3935

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Marci M. Manna, Psy.D., of Branson, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a clinical psychologist who is a member of the Missouri Psychological Association and the American Psychological Association; and

Whereas, Dr. Marci Manna recently enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when she was selected to receive the Outstanding Contribution to Prescriptive Authority on the State Level Award from the American Psychological Association's American Society for the Advancement of Pharmacotherapy; and

Whereas, Dr. Marci Manna will receive her Outstanding Contribution to Prescriptive Authority on the State Level Award on August 15, 2008, at an awards ceremony sponsored by the Division 55 American Society for the Advancement of Pharmacotherapy of the American Psychological Association; and

Whereas, Dr. Marci Manna has helped ensure the highest standards of performance and conduct in her chosen field of endeavor by serving for six years as chair of the Missouri Psychological Association's Prescription Privileges Task Force; and

Whereas, Dr. Marci Manna is justifiably proud also to be known as the beloved wife of Arno Wehr, III; daughter-in-law of Arno and Gayle Wehr, II; and daughter of Anna and Dean Hubbard and John and Sara Manna;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Dr. Marci Manna for the Outstanding Contribution to Prescriptive Authority on the State Level Award from the American Psychological Association's American Society for the Advancement of Pharmacotherapy and to convey this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Marci M. Manna, Psy.D., of Branson, Missouri.
